

JULIAN HARRIDGE.

STRICKEN DOWN IN THE HARRIS.

The death of Congressman Julian Harridge in Washington yesterday was a blow to the nation. He was a man of great ability and high character. His death was a great loss to the country.

Yesterday morning at eleven o'clock, a telegram was handed to Judge Walters, Chief of the Supreme Court, who was then in the Supreme Court building. The telegram was from Julian Harridge, who was in the city. It was a letter of resignation from the House of Representatives. The telegram was received by the House of Representatives at 11:15 a.m. The House was then in session. The Speaker of the House, Mr. Cannon, read the telegram. The House then adjourned.

Julian Harridge was a man of great ability and high character. He was a member of the House of Representatives for many years. He was a man of great ability and high character. He was a member of the House of Representatives for many years. He was a man of great ability and high character.

AN APPEAL TO THE GOVERNOR.

Obb County and Her Struggle with the Governor to Save His Life—A Large Delegation and a Powerful Appeal—One Day from the Gallows.

There was an unusual scene at the Capitol yesterday. The governor's private secretary, usually so reserved, was seen in the crowd, and reached only by a hurried approach, was thronged with an earnest, impassioned crowd, in the midst of which his calm, clear-cut face was set like a cameo.

BEHIND THE SCENES.

QUESTION OF MODJESKA'S VISIT.

And the Payment of Two Dollars a Seat—Was It All a Trick?—What Delivered Some Footlights?—Mr. Paul Blackley's Coming, Etc.

It may be fairly said that our people are not so much interested in the theatrical question as they are in the question of the visit of Modjeska. The visit of Modjeska would charge three dollars a seat for admission to the theater while she was in the city.
